Biography

Mark brings to his arbitral and dispute resolution practice the wealth of experience drawn from his 40 years of commercial practice, including 20 years as a Senior Counsel at the NSW and Australian Bars extending across contractual, corporate, banking, financial, insurance and insolvency areas.

Mark has acted for and against governments, and significant power, infrastructure and mining contractors. He has acted for against banks and financial institutions, and has advised major cultural, sporting and charitable institutions.

His practice as senior counsel in court and international and commercial arbitration specialised in disputes on major construction, engineering, infrastructure, mining and energy projects across Australia, Asia, and the Pacific.

Mark sits as party-appointed arbitrator and chair in arbitrations, including under ACICA, ICC, UNCITRAL, and RI rules. Mark was awarded Fellowship of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCI Arb) through the Singapore branch in 2012. He is a Fellow, panel arbitrator and member of the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA); accredited as an Arbitrator - Grade 1 on the Resolution Institute's panel, and a member of the HKIAC's List of Arbitrators. He is also a panel arbitrator and mediator of the Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC), a Fellow of the Asian Institute for Alternate Dispute Resolution (AIADR), an arbitrator on the Dubai International Arbitration Court (DIAC) Arbitrator List, and a panel arbitrator appointed by both Commonwealth (NBN disputes) and NSW agencies (Mining Access Arbitrations). Mark is also a member of ICCA, ICC, LCIA, SI Arb and SOCL (UK, Australia and Singapore).

Mark acts as expert to determine commercial and construction disputes and has been appointed privilege referee in connection with SIAC arbitrations.

Mark has been an accredited mediator for over 12 years and regularly mediates construction and other commercial disputes.

Accolades include: Mark is a "Highly respected and experienced barrister who has a fine brain. Collaborative and hard-working with exceptional analytical and advocacy skills." (Legal500 2023). Mark is regularly acknowledged by sources to be one of the most experienced and accomplished senior counsel practicing in the construction space. Commentators testify extensively to his impressive track record of success and ability to master the most complex cases. Fully conversant with arbitration and mediation procedures as well as with those of the courtroom, his practice encompasses matters across Australia as well as the Asia-Pacific region more broadly".
